ITALIANS SOON TO BEGIN DRIVE ON HUN HORDE

Concentrates Forces for New Offensive Along the Piave and on Asiago.

Italy is concentrating her efforts for a new offensive along the Piave and the Asiago plateau, according to ad-vices received here in semiofficial Ital-

Dispatches report that contrary to a general belief that there are only seven German divisions facing the Italians, there are twenty-three Ger-man divisions, two Bulgarian divis-ions, and one Turkish division and the Austrian army. These are rearrang-ing their positions and moving large quantities of ammunition and stores toward the Italian defense. On the other hand, the Italians are meeting the new situation with enormous reents of munitions, war moto nes, airplanes and heavy artillery.

Official embassy sources look for the beginning of another drive as soon as the snow begins to clear from the mountain passes in April.
Germany, it is maintained, has not weakened her forces in the southern sector. She has her eye on Italy's sector. She has her eye on Italy's great munitions and war factories along the line from Turin to Brescia, and taking of that would virtually mean that Italy is out of the war. With Italy silent, Germany would have not only an outlet through the Mediterranear, but would be able to release a powerful force to reinforce the western lines, Italy, admitting her previous defeat after her mag-nificent drive into Austria, is deter-mined to have no repetition. Financial reinforcement is growing, advices state, the fifth Italian loan now showing large subscriptions. Re-sponse to the government's appeal has been strong from Milan, Genoa, Florence and Turin, the latter being the great war industries center and reported to have so far reached the $150,000,000 mark. Milan may reach $250,000,000; Genoa, $150,000,000, and Florence. $50,000,000

Bill Would Save Lives Of Unnaturalized Aliens

A bill intended to protect the lives of German and Austrian soldiers in the American army is pending before the House, with a favorable report rom the Foreign Affairs Committee.

Alien enemies who have not claimed exemption and are now in active serv-ice number 77,000 If captured without naturalization they would be executed under the laws of war. Many are Alsatians, German Poles or of the various races of Austria-Hungary who are opposed to German rule. The bill permits Federal judges, on ndation of army to naturalize them.

Extra Clerk Appointed For Herald Stamp Sales

Miss Emma Binnix in Charge of Special Booth at Postoffice; Rivalry Among Contest-

Sales of war savings and thrift stamps at the City Postoflice yesterday to contestants in The Herald's War Savings Stamp Contest were so large and steady as to cause opening of a new department to handle them. Miss Emma Binnix has been designated to take charge of the new department. She was kept extremely busy aiding Miss Mamie E, Gulick, who, at the end of the day, reported a total of approximately $2,000 worth of stamps to Herald workers.

It is expected that when this list appears it will cause even a more hustling spirit among the contestants, as it will show them how easily they can bring their totals up to the leaders and find themselves among the eighteen winners at midnight February 12.

Officials at the Postoffice again called contest of the stamps at meetings held last night. of policemen at some of the precincts to pool their sales. This cannot be permitted as it is obviously unfair to earnest findividual workers. The precinct, however, which shows the largest sales will get the recognition it deserves.

Opposes Compulsory Inoculation in Army

Protest against compulsory inoculation of soldiers was expressed in a resolution forwarded to Secretary of War Baker and made public yester-day by the New York Anti-Vivisection Society.

Serum inoculation has resulted "in deplorably affecting the strength and availability of our national army and occasioned unnecessary loss to thousands of American families, who have bravely offered their young manhood to our beloved country," the resoluto our beloved country," the resolu-tion declares.

It was urged that it be left to the discretion of each soldier whether he should be inoculated, and, it is added, "we point to the provision of exemption now made by Great Britain, that power having been forced to rescind the rule of compulsion after the alarming effects of inoculation were disclosed."

The resolution was should in November 1 and 2 and 2 and 3 and 3 and 4 and 4
